

PUSD Approach to Excellence Mid-Year Report
Due Date Feb. 6, 2008

Approach to Excellence Strategy: Engage the community in creating a clear articulation of what a successful PUSD graduate looks like and additional questions related to Secondary Reform Keep track of long-term strategic decisions that need to be made, and make those decisions at the right time using the right processes
Project Manager: Kristin Maschka	Date: 2/6/08
Expectations/Scope: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Charter project in order to request proposals for support • Charter steering committee to guide strategic planning effort (PUSD Grad) • Develop community support for future decisions – grade configuration and funding for programs, facilities and technology • Set stage for board to address policy on school configuration by fall 2008 • Refine and maintain long-range planning timeline
Strategies Implemented: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First draft of strategic planning charter completed including basic timeline and deliverables <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Mission, vision, goals and PUSD Graduate Description June 2008 ○ Strategic Plan Feb 2009 ○ Accountability Task Force March 2009 • Long-range planning timeline developed and reviewed with Cabinet and District Performance Team • Long-range planning timeline last revised February 6, 2008. • Superintendent attended America Speaks event to observe their community engagement strategy
Data Collected and Analyzed: No data at this time.
Data Analysis Results:
Mid-Year Changes: The kick-off of the strategic planning committee and the community engagement have been pushed back from their original dates on the timeline to allow for more time for development of the charter and an RFP.
Support Needed: Input from Director of Communications on scope of community engagement.	